Chagall Invited To Live in Safad

SAPAD, Wednesday. — Mr. Marc Chagall, the artist, toured the town with his wife today. He appeared much impressed and seemed almost to tears when Sara Levy, the 84-year-old Mount Carmel veteran, told him, "This is the best and most beautiful place in the world. Come here."

Mayor A. Hacohen, of Safad, offered him a two-dunum plot on the mountain on which to build his home. Mr. Chagall said that although he had a wife and a 20-dunum plot in Nice, there "is no value to Jewish capital in the Diaspora. Here I have found a gleam in the eyes of every Jew which Jews in the Diaspora do not have. It is the gleam of happiness."

When the Mayor's wife presented the visitors with a Safad rose, Mr. Chagall exclaimed, "The roses of Safad are as fresh as a girl of 18." In the guest book of the Herzliya Hotel the artist drew a heart, pierced by an arrow, and wrote in Yiddish, "I hope I shall soon come here."

P.M. Says Nine Banished From Triangle for Racial Incitement

Jerusalem Post Knesset Reporter

The Knesset yesterday rejected a Communist motion for the administrative banishment of Arab citizens from the Little Triangle. The motion, presented by Mr. Yehoshua Toubi, was supported only by Mr. Toubi said that last Saturday 18 Arabs from villages in the Little Triangle had been arrested without charges being brought against them. He said they had been banished by an administrative order of the Military Governor to Beit Jann (near Haifa) where they had been left with no food or shelter.

He alleged that the banishment grew out of the Government's efforts to prevent the Arab population from expressing its protest over the Kfar Kasim murders and demanding a public trial.

If the Knesset wished to prevent future tragedies like Kfar Kasim, it must put an end to administrative imprisonment and disregard of the rights of the Arab population, he requested only the Communist Party.

In Israel there had been one case of a Kasim village. Mr. Ben-Gurion said that there was no report that Mr. Toubi's party was incensed over what was happening there over a period of months.

Mr. Ben-Gurion charged that the Communists had made use of the Kfar Kasim case to incite the Arabs against the Jews, and it had been found necessary to banish the nine persons in question for a month in order to prevent their racial incitement from having serious consequences.

The Prime Minister again appealed to the Communist Party to supply him with details if they felt that the rights of citizens were being disregarded and he promised to have each case investigated.

To Export 100,000 Tons Potash This Year

Jerusalem Post Reporter

HAIFA, Wednesday. — The Dead Sea Works intend to export 100,000 tons of potash during 1957. In the first half of the year some 50,000 tons will be shipped to various countries, with the rate increasing from July.

This was stated by a representative of the firm in the Port this evening, on the occasion of the loading of 3,000 tons in the s.s. Hadad. The ship is for Haifa.

Potash fetches about $33 a ton, f.a.b. at present.

The potash is being loaded by the mechanical installation which has just been put into operation. It includes a store with an 8,000-ton capacity and a 120-metre long conveyor bridge to the ship's hold. It was built by the Dead Sea Works at a cost of IL-750,000.

The potash is taken from Bedouin workers by truck and from there in specially constructed railcars to the Port.

NO MORE FUEL CUTS SEEN

Jerusalem Post Reporter

Since consumption was restricted over a month ago the supply of fuel has been plentiful. It is believed that for the next two months there will be no need for further cuts.

It is understood that the restrictions on electricity consumption, industry, motor transport and agriculture have cut down fuel consumption by 15 to 20 per cent. At the same time, the supply of fuel can be assured.

Shipments of oil up to the end of February have already been guaranteed, and purchases of oil for the following months are being discussed.

WANTS GATE BARRED TO DIPLOMATS

The Jordan Parliament has decided to postpone indefinitely discussion of a request submitted by Fakhri Anabata, M.P. from Nablus, to ban all diplomats from crossing the armistice lines at Mandelbaum Gate in Jerusalem, according to the Old City daily "Palestine" yesterday.

Anabata also charged the Government with condoning the widespread practice of selling UNRWA ration cards.

Local Vaccine Safe, U.S. Report Says

Jerusalem Post Reporter

Preliminary examinations of American-produced Balk vaccine confirm its safety, it was learned yesterday at the Ministry of Health.

Ministry sources emphasized that the examinations are not yet complete. No results have yet been received from Denmark where laboratory tests are also taking place.

The local serum will not be used in the nationwide vaccination campaign until final examinations of its safety are received.

The campaign to stretch out throughout the country, with inoculation stations opening today at Beit Jann, Haifa, and Hadera, and at Kfar Yehoshua and El Eikhon.

Today is the last day for inoculations at Kiryat Yovel (Jerusalem), the Kupat Holim clinic in Herzliya, the Tipat HaLevi station in Natanya, the Kupat Holim station in Katanya-Dora and at the Tipat HaLevi station in Shechem-Alona or the Old City.

Residents of Beersheba who have still not brought their children for inoculation may bring their children today or tomorrow to the Tipat HaLevi station in Shechem-Alona or the Old City.

10 Polio Cases

Ten children contracted polio in December, as compared with 20 in November, it was learned yesterday from the Ministry of Health.

Between December 30 and January 1, two children contracted the disease, both of them in Ramle.

Seasonal increases were reported in the incidence of polio in December which went up to 219 in December compared with 194 in November; mumps which rose from 296 to 636 cases in these two months and measles which rose from 269 to 374.

The incidence of most illnesses decreased between November and December: diphtheria from 43 to 12; measles from 147 to 145; typhoid from 48 to 46; scarlet fever from 197 to 120.

Inquiry into Arab Teachers' Loyalty

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TIBERIAS, Wednesday. — The judicial inquiry into the loyalty of Arab teachers and a teacher of the Kfar Yehoshua secondary school, who are suspected of inciting their pupils to disloyalty, opened before Judge Shalom Kahan today.

The suspects are Metanah Jirias Metanah, the headmaster, and Salim Bashir Edesly, a teacher. The inquiry is being held under the Mandatory Education Ordinance of 1951 by which the Minister of Education or the competent authority may charge a judge with holding an inquiry into the loyalty of teachers.

The headmaster testified today in answer to questions by the judge, Mr. Abrahamovich, that during the Sinal campaign the pupils held political discussions and talked about fighting the British.

He had warned them that such talk might do harm to the school, especially during the emergency. He had also posted a warning on the notice board. But the discussions continued and tension rose, finally leading to a fight between the Druse and Arab pupils.

Druse Stayed Away

As things got worse the Druse boys had stayed away from lessons. They came to him with a written complaint against himself which they intended to send to the authorities, and demanded that he sign it. In it they accused him of having incited their fellow pupils against the Jewish teachers.

They also charged that he had brought Communist newspapers to the school and had given them to the pupils to read. He denied these accusations and had refused to sign the complaint. When the situation became strained, the school had been closed for a short time.

The headmaster testified that the Military Governor had also questioned him on the situation in the school. He had been especially anxious about a rumour that the teacher had held a discussion on Egypt in his class. He had informed the Governor that the discussion had only been a geography lesson on the Suez Canal.

He completed his testimony today and the hearing will probably be continued in the village. Five teachers and five pupils are due to be heard.

The two defendants are represented by Messrs. Nissim Haviari and S. Corneil. The Ministry is represented by its legal advisers, Mr. S. Gitter and Mr. Y. Shohat, and several inspectors of the Pedagogical Council.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL TO SPEAK ON PRESS

The Attorney-General, Mr. Haim Cohen, will speak on "The Freedom of the Press" at today's luncheon meeting of the Tel Aviv-Jaffa Rotary Club at 1.15 at S.O.A. House.

What Are You Waiting For?

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEEL AVIV, Wednesday. — Mr. R. Barkat, speaking at the Histadrut Executive meeting here today, urged that the cultural standards of the workers be raised.

There were some 30,000 listeners present in Israel, a list which the Histadrut must raise within a few years, insufficient work was done to reach the masses, he said, declaring that the volunteer spirit within the Histadrut has been slackened off.

We were expecting new immigration from Eastern Europe, but the numbers of which we do not know and which will be of incalculable value to the country. The immigrants will have to be imbued with the desire for freedom of thought and spirit, he said, and warned that lack of understanding in the approach to them might deal a death blow to future immigration.

The Histadrut should now once more consider whether to publish an evening paper, Mr. Barkat said. A special library should also be established for the use of many new Histadrut members unversed in the history of the Socialist-Zionist movement.

Book Publishing

Mr. Barkat disclosed that the four left-wing publishing houses have been asked to unite with Am Oved, the official Histadrut publishers. A department to serve the cultural needs of all settlement organizations is to be established.

The Arab and Druse minorities must be culturally integrated, stressed Mr. Barkat, who is also head of the Arab Department. The Histadrut Arab paper should be improved. He described the Histadrut Arab paper as the only one of its kind in the whole world.

Mr. Bezael Shazar, head of the Culture and Education Centre, reviewed its manifold activities. Mr. Z. Haring, head of the Organization Department, called for more decentralization and flexibility of Histadrut organization.

He said that the employed Histadrut staff numbered 570 Histadrut members. Histadrut membership now totals 580,000.

Children and youth in scattered immigrant centres should be the first concern of the Histadrut Cultural Centre, Mr. A. Asaf, Deputy Minister of Education, stated. He questioned whether the Histadrut budget was not too large for the work it was doing.

Mr. Simon Davis, of Miami Beach, Florida, referred to Mrs. Meir's closing statement on the programme, "We Jews are a stubborn people, all we want is to live in peace."

Commented Mr. Davis, "In my book that was the most poetic thought that could be said of our present predicament in this troubled part of the world."
